ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court upon motion of the defendant pro se complaining about the calculation of his sentence by the Bureau of Prisons (BOP). (Doc. No. 690).

In the motion, the defendant seeks credit for time he was allegedly detained in federal custody before being released to state authorities following his federal sentencing. He argues that the BOP's calculation of his sentence is incorrect because he remained in federal custody between October 18, 2004, until 2006.

An attack on the execution or length of a federal sentence must be brought in an action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 in the district where an inmate is confined after exhaustion of administrative remedies. United States v. Miller, 871 F.2d 488, 490 (4th Cir. 1989). Here, the defendant is incarcerated at the Federal Correctional Institution in Bennettsville, South Carolina, within the District of South Carolina. Accordingly, the Court is without jurisdiction to grant the requested relief.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that the defendant's motion (Doc. No. 15) is DENIED without prejudice to be brought in the appropriate district.

Signed: July 28, 2011

Robert J. Conrad, Jr.
Chief United States District Judge
